ENDS SUCCESSFUL BASEBALL SEASON

Washington and Lee Won Nineteen Games and Lost Seven.

Lexington, Va., May 19.—The baseball season just closed by Washington and Lee has been one of the most successful in the history of the college. The team won nineteen games and lost seven, contending all the way with the hardest schedule in the history of Washington and Lee.

Preliminary practice under Al Orth was ideal, despite bad weather, and the season started with Donahue, the regular catcher, on short, as Erwin was out of the game. This shift caused the loss of the second game, and in the third game Donahue was again behind the bat, and with Erwin on short, the team played excellent ball, dropping two games in the second week, however—one to Vermont, which presented the strongest line-up seen here during the season, and another to Columbia, Washington and Lee won one game from Penn. State, and in the second game, Donahue and Smith, the real strength of the team, were both required with bad hands, and Penn. won.

Smith got back into the game the next day, but Donahue was out for three weeks, and in that time the Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina got away with its game in Lexington, and West Virginia took one out of two. Donahue got back in time to beat Guilford, a strong bunch from North Carolina.

The team left on the Southern trip without Third Baseman Rattery, a badly bruised foot keeping him on crutches. The team played poor ball at Georgia, losing one to Georgia Tech, and another to Georgia Tech, and in that time the Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina got away with its game in Lexington, and West Virginia took one out of two. Donahue got back in time to beat Guilford, a strong bunch from North Carolina.

There was not a weak spot on the team, the only weakness being the general light hitting of the outfield, but the main thing in this position, especially, and the team as a whole hit well. Donahue's record is one of the best in many a day, but his record does not show his strength, for he was always the backbone of the team. His ability as a catcher has attracted widespread attention outside of Lexington and outside of Virginia, and he has received numerous offers from managers of fast league teams, but these he has refused, as he expects to finish his course here and to be on the team.

Stewart, who caught twelve games, lacked the generalship and the snap so characteristic of Donahue, but he was a rattling good catcher and fitted well into his place.

Moran began the spring with a bad knee in his second left arm. This caused him trouble in the first game against Columbia, and he had to give way to Tompkins, who got credit for losing the game. The kink caused Harry to lose to Agricultural and Mechanical, but when he got back he was better, and was due to the kink kept him in the hole in many of his games, and he was unable to repeat the record of his freshman year. The kink made it impossible for him to pitch several games when he was to have been used, a cold and simply putting him on the shelf. But he ended the season gloriously by twirling eleven innings against the Agricultural and Mechanical bunch, allowing them only five hits, shutting them out and never being in real danger.

His good pitching stands eight games, and he lost one to Guilford. His good pitching brought home eight victories to Washington and Lee. He batted nearly .500 in his last three games, and always held his position near.

CINCINNATI REDS NOW LEAD LEAGUE

Crowd New York Giants Out of Coveted Place at Top of List.

DO IT IN TEN INNINGS

Three Successive Singles in Last Session Bring in Deciding Run.

Cincinnati, O., May 19.—Though crippled by the absence of their two leading hitters and run-getters, Bercher and Bates, Hank O'Getty's Reds went to first place by beating the Giants, 4 to 3, today in a fierce ten-round struggle. Sugars pitched wonderful ball except in the fourth inning, when four hits and a pass gave the champs three runs. Outside of this inning, only one of the visitors reached third base. Ames also pitched well, but the Reds hit him at timely moments. Ames walked only two men, but both of his passes resulted in tallies. Three consecutive singles by "Mickey" Mitchell and Egan earned the winning run in the last half of the tenth. Score: Cincinnati, 4; New York, 3 (ten innings).

CUBS LOSE TO BROOKLYN
Chicago, May 19.—Brooklyn took today's game from the Cubs, 6 to 2. Ragano, a former Cub pitcher now with Brooklyn, held the Cubs to four hits. His underhand curve had the Chicago athletes guessing, and they could not even get started except in two innings. Smith started for the locals, but had to be scratched before the second round was over. Lavender took up the job, and performed with much credit to himself, but was leading a lost cause. He was withdrawn in the eighth to allow Good to hit. Ragano, who pitched the latest Cub acquisition, worked in the ninth, and looked good. Score: Brooklyn, 6; Chicago, 2.

BAD THROW LOSES GAME
St. Louis, Mo., May 19.—A bad throw by Charles Dooin in the fifth gave the Cardinals today's game with the Phillies, 3 to 2. Hausser scored on the pitch, and the count, and Oakes was put in position to come over with the winner. Brennan pitched steadily, Philadelphia and passed nobody. Hausser was wild, but effective in the pitcher. In the ninth the Phillies got double and a single, but Higgins made a great stop back of second and prevented a tie. Score: St. Louis, 3; Philadelphia, 2.

SOPHOMORES WIN SILVER LOVING CUP

Result of Class Baseball Games. Record of A. & M. Team.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) West Raleigh, N. C., May 19.—The class baseball championship was settled yesterday afternoon, the sophomores coming into possession of the handsome silver loving cup donated by the faculty. The freshmen defeated the short course team recently 3 to 2; then the sophomores defeated the freshmen yesterday afternoon 5 to 1 in the best game of the class series.

The varsity baseball season closed last Saturday, the team having a record of playing twenty games, winning thirteen, losing six and tying one, with a percentage of .681 for the season, the best record of any college team in North Carolina. Twice as many games were lost this year as last year, and also twice as many as the year before.

Archib Farmer, the star center fielder of the baseball team, has been elected captain of the 1913 team. D. E. Floyd has been elected captain of the 1913 track team.

The present junior class has elected officers for next year as follows: President, C. G. Spencer; Vice-President, D. B. Floyd; Secretary and Treasurer, D. B. Davis; Historian, R. L. Sloan; Prophet, W. C. Taylor.

The Aganthe, the annual publication of the senior class, was received from the printers the first part of the week and has been unanimously declared to be the best ever gotten out at the Agricultural and Mechanical College. It is handsomely bound in genuine brown leather, the lettering being in gold. The editor-in-chief is C. E. Brown, and the business manager is H. M. Walton.

English Heavyweight Will Try to Arrange Match With Negro Champion.

New York, May 19.—Bombardier Wells, heavyweight champion of England, who is here to get a match with Champion Jack Johnson if possible, will see his first fight in this country tomorrow night, when he will attend the ten-round contest between Mike Gibbons, the American welterweight champion, and Sid Burns, the British welterweight champion, at Madison square garden.

Wells is a blonde and good-natured. When in conversation his face wears a perpetual grin, and he is the last person one would take for a prize fighter if met outside the ring.

"There is more interest felt in American boxing in England than you would think," said Wells to-day. "In the past year or so the game has made such strides in this country that it looks as though the States are in a fair way to outdistance the British Isles. When we heard that Packey McFarland had beaten Matt Wells, our lightweight champion, we could scarcely believe it."

"I came over here to meet Al. Palmer, your white hope, and ultimately to get a fight with Champion Jack Johnson if I can. It was a shame and unfair for the authorities to call off my bout with Johnson in London. They feared that I would be seriously injured. Well, I guess I could have taken care of myself, and I told them so, too, but then you can't tell British police officials anything once they have made up their mind."

"I'm going up to Rye Beach, N. Y., with Wells and Burns for a spell until my sea legs get the kinks out of them. Then I will be in a position to talk business. I would like to fight Palmer on the fourth of July at some place on the coast, where we can go the ten-round limit. If I conquer Palmer, I don't think I would have much trouble in getting a bout with Johnson."

PRIMARIES IN BEAUFORT.
Washington, N. C., May 19.—As a result of the Democratic primaries held in Beaufort county yesterday, twenty out of the twenty-seven precincts gave Colonel H. S. Neal, of this city, the endorsement of the county as a delegate to the national convention over Joseph E. Taylor, his opponent, by a safe majority. Colonel Neal carried three out of the four wards in the city of Washington, receiving seventy out of ninety delegates. It is impossible to give a correct estimate on State officers, as the vote is slow in being reported. Hall and Travis led in the city for corporation commissioner; Daughtridge and Daniel tied for lieutenant-governor. There was no opposition for Craige as Governor. Indications are that Mark Malette, of Tyrrell county, is leading for State Senator.

HONORS ARE EVEN
Cleveland, O., May 19.—Cleveland lost the opener of a double-header in the United States League to-day by the score of 3 to 5, and won the second game, 1 to 2, in the evening. The first innings of the opening game it proved to be a close contest, but when the Chicago batsmen fell upon Meyers and Reiser, the situation was decided. Both Reiser and Shack worked well in the second game. Shack was apparently a trifle easier to find than support, and to this may be attributed the victory of the Forest City team. Score: Cleveland, 3; Chicago, 5.

ENTERTAIN AT HUNT CLUB.
Keswick, Va., May 19.—All Keswick society turned out on Friday afternoon at the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Murray. The program was a most delightful one, and the evening was a most successful one. The Hunt Club that has been given in a long time. Wilford Russell, of London, was the guest of honor of the gathering. He sang in a beautiful baritone voice the choicest selections of old English, Scotch and Irish ballads. His perfect mimicry and intensely humorous interpretations carried his audience to the point of tears. No less good than his Old World songs were his Dixie ragtime airs, and the hunting songs of old England. "The Yule Log" in particular stirred the sporting blood of Keswick with the keenest delight. Mrs. Russell's accompanying of her husband was perfect.

Mountcastle's Band furnished inspiring music for dancing, and almost every one joined in a frolicsome cakewalk. Among Mr. and Mrs. Boock's guests were Judge and Mrs. Duke, Dr. and Mrs. McGraw, Mr. Presson, and Mrs. Thornton, Dr. and Mrs. Phinney, and Mrs. Julian Morris, Mrs. Mary Shields, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Grace Russell, Miss Margaret Randolph, Mrs. Joslin, Mrs. Tanner Miss Reams, Mrs. Money, Mrs. Helen Money, Miss Somers, Miss Perkins, Miss Everett, Miss Bessie Scott, Miss Mary Shackelford, Mrs. Dickinson, Miss Ingersoll, Mrs. Cariden, Mrs. Pitts, Miss Long, Mrs. Wyman, Mrs. Crawford, Joe Everett, Frank Randolph, George Matton, Dr. E. United States League Holds Secret Meeting
Persistent Rumor That Circuit May Be Reduced From Eight to Six Clubs.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Pittsburgh, Pa., May 19.—A secret meeting of the United States League was held to-day at the Hotel Schenley. President W. J. Witman presided. Most of the club owners were present, including Landgraf, of Richmond. They refused to divulge the nature of the conference, and denied vigorously it was with a view to reducing the circuit from eight to six clubs, but there is a persistent rumor that New York and Washington may be dropped. Marshall P. Henderson, president of the local club, told the news that he was fairly well pleased with the situation, and did not expect to make any money the first season, and that the league looks as if it would stay. President Witman remained over till to-morrow to witness the game between the Philpines and Chicago.
